THE population of the state of Nevada is about equal to one-fourth that of the District of Columbia. How the people of that sovereign state must envy this community the restful quiet that results from our unique form of government.

Twis is the day that has been solemnly set forth by the good Mugs of Massachusetts for their great gubernstorial wump. They don't expect to elect their candidate, even with the solid support of the Democratic contingent, but they mean to show what they might do if they had votes enough.

The most despicably mean ambition that any American cherishes to-day is the intent of Democrats in Mississippi and South Carolina to capture two districts, each of which was created by the Democracy for the purpose of making the largest possible number of Republicans expend their ballots in the election of a single congressman.

It is the opinion of the Boston Globe that the proposition of the civil service commissioners to "get rid of some of the dead wood" in the New York custom house "means, probably, that those who have been in the service long enough to forget the answers to the list of questions will have to go." If they are Republicans they will certainly have to get out. If Democrats they can stay. This is the eraof reform.

THERE will be but one Republican in the next Georgia senate. It is a very difficult thing to elect Republicans where there are no Re-publican voters.—Wheeling Register.

It is quite as difficult to elect Republicans in states where their political breth-ren are not permitted to do any voting that would interfere in any way with the plans of the Democracy. The only surprising thing about this Georgia case is the mistake or accident by which a Republican gets. into the senate.

It is altogether too late in the day for It is altogether too late in the day for Democrats to deny the practical disfranchisement of Republicans in numerous southern states. The whole business has been repeatedly "given away" by Democratic newspapers and influential Democratic newspapers and influential Democratic newspapers and influential Democratic newspapers and interpretable the party. All that the Republicans charge—all that

Mr. Blaine, Mr. Sherman, Mr. Hoar, or any Republican newspaper has alleged—in this connection is proven, not only by official returns and the testimony taken by Senate investigating committees, but by the utterances of Democratic papers and speakers.

The Fiftieth Congress, If the Republicans succeed in the election of a majority in the House of Representatives in the fiftieth Congress it will be a great victory, showing that the Democratic party is weakening in the second year of

be days of James Buchanan. The chances are against such success, for e Republican party plays against an oppopent who uses loaded dice. In many states the "election" to-day will be a mock election, a miserable farce, such an outrage cannot be repeated a great many times without destroying the government.

If the Democrats shall have a majority the House it will be better for the future of the Republican party if that majority is strong enough to pass a strictly revenue tariff bill through that body to be killed in he Republican Senate.

The passage of such a bill on the eve of the next presidential election would give the Republicans an easy victory, would, for the first time, present the great issue with unmistakable directness. Whatever may be the result of to-day's voting the Republican party may well expect to gain by it. This is one of the advantages of being out of power. This is splendid November weather-just the kind of weather to facilitate the Pennsylvania Ratiroad Company in macadamizing the causeway of the Long bridge. Superintendent Carter will receive the thanks

NEW NATIONAL THEATER.

The reception accorded Louis James and Marie Wainwright at the National last evening was a tribute to schnowledged meris, no less flattering to the appreciation of the large and fashionable audicuce than the excellent artists stage to-day are Mr. James and Miss Mari Wasnwright, in all that appertains to dramati Severat, hundred local statesmen of representation; eareful in dressing; perfect in greater or less renown will be turned down gesture, and without fault in reading, they dogesture, and without fault in reading, they deserve the encomisms so liberally showered on them. In "Virginitus" Mr. James presents a conception which is so entirely original and so pleasing that comparison with the readilition of the many artists who have presented it is impossible. It is an encounter that the reading of one of the most careful, capable, and versating actors of the day. Miss Wainwright, to rare personal graces, adds the quality of voice which, without orlor, lift the widest anditorium with musical volume. Her conception of the tender Virginia is conceded to be without parallel. An exceptionally line company, including with propulses the virginal E. I. Then, Mr. F. C. Humbur, F. C. Moscily, and Miss Kaile Meck, support the stars in most carefully selected programmers.

The stage last evolving was nowly turnished with scenery, uphository, and appointments.

At Albaugh's Grand Opera House Last evening a large mouse greeted the eminent tragest-come Mme. Janauschele on the opening of her farevers season in this city, and her first appearance here in the latest creation, "Meg Merrilles." As with "Block House, this play is an adaptation made by the great setters here self from Sir Walter Scott's "Guy Manuering." The versical differs in some respects from that in which Miss Cushman made her last appearance, this city in 1872, and in the finale of the gray for the respectation of the character of the grays har some ception of the character of the grays har

The finale of the third set was also a marvelous revelation of the tragic powers of Januschek, and drew forth a hearty double recall. The supporting company is entitled to more than passing mention. Not a vacant seat; no occupant of any chair at Herzog's last night, neither man, woman, nor child, whose face was not convulsed with hugher during the entire performance of "Vis." Tryphenia Paffy, Neil Burgess, was irresistibly content in all her specifies, hoke, and movements. The life-likeliess—every one felt it, acknowledged it by genting applause. HARRIS'S BLIGH THEATER.

At the Bilou last bight "Starm Beaten" was streeted with a storm of applause that cannot be beaten. The drama has certainly every merit to render it very popular. Quick incident following incident, not improbable anywhere, well considered and well arranged everywhere, it keeps the attention continually alert, and concludes with entire satisfaction. Worthy high praise are the source offects, especially the ship on fire, the aurors, and the freezer. Particularly powerful was the acting of Christian Christianson (Wright Huntington). Richard Orchardson (Charles Canfield, the expans of the ship (Walter C. Bellows, Patrick O Reilly J. H. Genny, Precilla Selfon (Harfield Armstrong), and Kate (Euror Fossette). These made their several situations appear reality.

These made their several situations appear reality.

"Escaped from Sinus Sing" had a great effect last night through the crowded audience of the Dime. It is continual, rapid setton from the first curtain to the last action, two, of the most bassionate kind. The incidental songs and dances were rendered with such expression and energy that mighty applanes followed each, and an encore of each was demanded. Those of the company, where all are good, who particularly distinguished themselves were C. W. Barry-not in a single, but in five characters—E. M. Ryan as Karl. Jonnie Eustace as laura, and Hanche Florence as Maggie. The good people who see this drama will be delighted, and if any see it not they will only be sorry when they bear the reports of finely more fortunate friends.

KERNAN'S WASHINGTON THEATER.

KIRNAN'S WASHINGTON THEATER.

Three plays at the saine time on one stage are certainly a novelly yet this novelty was welcomed last night at Kernan's despite the fact that the neman brain has but two divisions or hemispheres. Three seemed, someone, to have been produced for the occusion, and to have acted harmonionsly. The grand specialty troupe of Keilly and Wood won merical applicate throughout their presentations. It was a glittering, changeful, charming revelation, yet without confinion. We death if our city has before witnessed any onternament of the kind equal to this, or if the future can surpass it. Therefore, let all who like to lanch all who are disposed to have their wonder excited to an amazing height avail themselves of an extraordinary opportunity.

Increased Shares of Capital Stock-A decision was rendered by the Suprem-Court of the United States yesterday in the series of cases known as the Pacific National Bank cases brought here by appeal from the United States circuit court for the district of Massachusetts. These were sults instituted by the receiver of the insuits instituted by the receiver of the insolvent Pacific National Bank of Bostousgainst stockholders of that bank to enforce personal liability for an assessment of

The stockholders maintained, when the cases were tried in the court below, that they were not liable on the shares of increased capital stock heid by them, for the reason that the increase of the capital from $500,000 to $500,000 was unauthorized and illegal, and they were not parties to it. The court heid that the stockholders are liabin upon their shares of increased capital stock; that their sbares of increased capital stock; that the defenses at law and the alleged ground of relief in equity are alike insufficient, and that the judgments and decrees of the cir-cuit court in favor of the receiver must be suit court in favor of the receiver must be affirmed in all the cases, and it was so ordered. This decision covers ten cases in that court, and several hundred pending suits in the courts of Massachusetts. The opinion was delivered by Justice Matthews.

Time Will Tell. The Baltimore American says that it is still a problem whether Mrs. Cleveland will enter problem whether Mrs. Cleveland will enter the social world in this city this season or not. From the ladies of the household come reports that she will not. They say that, instead of entertaining cay throngs of visitors at receptions, she will be singling pretty little nursory lullabys. The ladies of this city have all taken the greatest interest in coming events, and those who are in position to know say most decically that Mrs. Cleveland will not enter society. A great deal of shopping has been done of late by the ladies of the white house, but it is said that very little, evening coscume material has been bought. It has been more of administry nature. At least, this is what the indies say.

The act of Congress taxing oleomargaring went into effect yesterday, when the revenue went into effect yesterday, when the revenue officers of this sity were busy in affixing stamps on all packages of that material. The act fixes a tax as follows: $600 per year for manufacturers of oleomargarine, 3480 for wholesald dealers, and 348 for retail dealers. In astillion to the stamp dealers are obliged to mark the paper in which they wrap the oleomargarine plainty. Oleomargarine, one pound, two pounds, or whatever the quantity may be. The production of oleomargarine for demeetle ensumption is estimated by Commissioner Miller at the rate of 100,000,000 pounds a year, and the amognit experted is also believed to be very large.

Pension Certificates Issued. As statement propared by Commissioner Black, of the pension office, shows that the total number of pension certificates issued dur-ing the month of Ooiober was 7,826. Of this number 7,60 were supplemental certificates under the act of Aug. 4, 1886.

WRIT OF PROBERTION GRANTED

The Judge of a Wisconsin Coast Restrained in a Certain Case. In the Supreme Court of the United States vesterday Justice Blatchford delivered the opinion of the court in the original case of the Phonix Insurance Company et against Charles E. Dyer, judge of the United States district court for the eastern district of Wisconsin. This case, which was a petition to that court for a writ of prohibition, arose out of an action insti-tuted by the Goodrich Transportation Com-prohibition, arose out of an action instituited by the Goodrich Transportation Company in the Wisconsin district court to limit its liability as the owner of the steamer occato for damages caused by fire

due to sparks from the chimners of that vessel while she was passing up Fox river on her way to Green Bay. The Phomix Insurance Company and the other plaintiffs asked the court to grant a writ of prohibition to restrain the judge of the district court from further proceedings, on the ground that that court was without jurisdiction to grant the relief sought by the owners of the steamer. The court held that there was nothing in the admirally rules which warrants the jurisdiction of the district court of Wisconsin, and that the case was clearly one for a writ of prohibition. The writ would therefore be issued. The court did not, however, decide the question whether or not the statutory limitation of liability extends to the damages caused by the fire in question so as to be enforcible in an appropriate court of competent jurisdiction.
